

WELCOME TO 11th GRADE HONORS ENGLISH!

Summer Reading Assignment –Honors American Literature 11th Grade -- Ms. CALDWELL

The Old Man and the Sea- Ernest Hemingway READ IT!!

1. The essay- As you read this book, pay special attention to how Hemingway sets Santiago up as a hero. Highlight your book according to the three most heroic traits that you find. (Ex. courage, humility, knowledge, determination, etc.) You will need evidence from your book (quotes) in your essay. Your essay should include an outline. This is a pretty easy assignment. Roman numeral I. will be the first heroic characteristic that you wish to discuss. And so onYour outline should have three roman numerals. Your essay should have an introduction, body, body, body, and a conclusion. 5 paragraphs and approximately 500 words. PUT A WORD COUNT AT THE END. Each body paragraph should have at least one quote supporting the heroic trait that is being discussed in that paragraph. Your essay should NOT have I, me, my, mine, we, us, our, ours, you, your, or yours in it. Also, avoid “a lot” and “lots”- these are slang and pet peeves of mine. Remember, you are writing for an English class, and the assignment calls for formal English on your part.

2. Answer the study guide questions that go with the novel.

I will take up your essay and study guide questions on the first day of class, and I will give you a general quiz on the first day of class. BE READY!!! Don't start out behind because you did not do your assignment. If you do, you will have a hard time catching up. You do not have to have the book with my ISBN#- Any copy of the book will be fine. I put my ISBN# just in case you would prefer to be on the same page with me.

Books to buy for this class. (I prefer that you don't borrow a book. I want you to take your notes in your own book.) We will read them in this order. Summer Reading – The Old Man and the Sea-(ISBN#0-684-80122-1) by Ernest Hemingway and Fahrenheit 451(ISBN#978-1-4516-7331-9) by Ray Bradbury.

- 1. The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams will be the first play that we will read together. You will need it IMMEDIATELY but I do have a classroom set of these. (ISBN# 978-0-8112-1404-9)
- 2. The Crucible by Arthur Miller- another play. September (ISBN#978-0-14-243733)
- 3. The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne. October (ISBN#0-451-52522-1)
- 4. The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald. January (ISBN#0-02-019881-7)
- 5. Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston. March (ISBN#0-06-091650-8)
- 6. MLA Handbook- 8th Edition. December
- 7. Also in December, you will have a test over an outside reading novel that you will select in August and use to write your term paper second semester.

Your will have to highlight this header and put in Times New Roman 12 point

Center Title

Indent your first and all other paragraphs after the first. The first sentence of your paper should be a WOW sentence-a quote, a question, etc. Be sure to put a transition word, such as “another” or “The next characteristic,” in the beginning of the second and third body paragraphs. The last line of your introduction should be your thesis statement.

The Old Man and the Sea presents the perfect hero in the characteristics of Santiago, which are _____ , _____ , and _____ .

Also, for every essay next year, you will staple an outline to the front. It is important to plan before you write, and an outline shows that you did that step. Also, every essay that analyzes literature needs a quote in each body paragraph that supports your topic sentence for that paragraph. And every essay needs a word count typed at the end that just represents the words in the paper, not the outline, header info, or title. word count typed at the end that just represents the words in the paper, not the outline, header info, or title.

 - 2. Detail
- II. Second quality
 - A. Support
 - B. Support
 - C. Support
- III. Third quality
 - A. Support
 - 1. Detail
 - 2. Detail
 - B. Support

You will need at least one quote from the book in each body paragraph – you can choose on this outline to put it in your outline or not. Format quotes: Hemingway describes Santiago’s eyes as “cheerful and undefeated”(10). Or- Santiago says, “but man is not made for defeat”(103).

Note-Each outline will look different as far as what goes under each roman numeral. Develop outline to suit your information. You may choose to put quotes on outline or not. Do not put an A without a B. Do not put a 1. without a 2. After the A and B, 1. and 2., you may add as many additional details as needed. Capitalize the first word only in each entry. Double space. In your paper, also double space and include a word count at the end of your paper that only counts the words of your paper, not the header info. Paper should be at least 500 words. Do include a minimum of one quote per body paragraph that offers support for that paragraph.

The second summer reading novel for Honors American Literature is Fahrenheit 451. During the first quarter of school, we will be reading plays in class. You can choose to read this novel in the summer, or you can read it as outside reading while we are reading the two plays in class. With these plays, we will be taking quizzes and writing papers. Decide what will work best for you. Keep in mind that once school starts, you will also need to be reading a term paper novel for a test in December. These questions and the reading of this novel will be due on September 3, with a quiz on that day. It always helps if you buy the book I use, so I have included the ISBN # if you want to order that book. Any book is fine, though, and I have put the words that begin each section to help you if you have another book that has different page numbers. I only divided it into sections to help you read a section and then work on the questions for that section.

In addition to The Old Man and the Sea, you will also need to read Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury. It is so relevant to today! Read it and research it. I love Cliff's Notes IF you use them in addition to your reading of the novel. Sparknotes is also nice and free! Go online and study this book AFTER you read it. Take the Sparknotes quiz. You may be glad you did. I haven't asked you to write an essay on this novel for the summer, but you will do this during the first few weeks of school. I have required that you complete questions for this novel. Have them ready to turn in on Sept. 3rd. Dates for Summer reading quizzes, essays, and tests are as follows:

The Old Man and the Sea

August 12th - quiz, essay, and study guide
questions are due
August 31st – TEST

Fahrenheit 451

September 3rd --quiz, study guide due
September 24th – TEST
September 30th – Essay due
(topics to be given Aug 30th)

You could decide to do the second novel after school starts if you are a good reader. You will have three weeks (about 50 pages per week) to read it and complete the questions if you wait to start it after school starts. We will be reading, testing, and writing an essay on The Glass Menagerie during that time. However, we do read every word of the play in class.
